The re-election of Gov. Beckham would be a serious draw back to the prosperity of the State.

It is now something more than three weeks until the election, and the prospects for the entire Republican ticket to be elected grows brighter every day.

When you go to vote this fall, you should compare the business qualifications of Col. Belknap with the pardon record of Gov. Beckham, and cast your vote for the best interest of the State, by voting for Col. Belknap.

When such men as Gen. Buckner, Major Owens, Col. Breckenridge, Mr. Knott, and scores of others, are leaving the Democratic party, it is time for people to stop and think, and do likewise.

SHERIFF McNery, of Kenton county, has bolted the Democratic ticket and says that he is now a Republican. He says he cannot stand the tactics of the Democrats. There are others in the same condition.

GOVERNOR Beckham is not satisfied with pardoning all the Democrats in the State penitentiary, but he has begun to pardon criminals convicted in the Federal Court. A full account of which will appear in our next issue.

If the Republicans and Independent voters of this Judicial District will do their full duty between now and the election, W. Scott Morrison will be Circuit Judge and M. L. Heavry will be elected Commonwealth's Attorney.

In the selection of officers of the election in Kenton county, Sheriff McNery, a Democrat, voted with the Republican member and refused to appoint some officers recommended by the Pugh faction of the Democratic party. This is carrying the matter too far, and is Goebelin pure and simple.

It has been suggested that the reason the Democrats of Kentucky didn't adopt a platform, was that they could find no place wherein they could insert that re-hashed old phrase "We point with pride." They have absolutely done nothing that they could be proud of. In anticipation of the crushing defeat that awaits them in November, they could have appropriately used that other time-worn expression of theirs, and said: "We view with alarm."

It has now been more than three weeks since the Hon. J. C. Speight charged, in a speech, that Gov. Beckham had agreed to pardon a criminal for $500.00, the same to be paid into the Democratic campaign fund, and as yet the Governor has not denied the charge. Can it be true, that the Governor of this Commonwealth would agree to do such a thing? The silence on the part of the Governor indicates that the charge is true. This is a serious question and the people should consider it well before lending their assistance to such a candidate.

THE Hartford Herald, this week, takes up considerable space in giving Judge Morrison some free advertising in his race for Circuit Judge against Mr. Birkhead. Heretofore, during last year, the Herald refused to give its space to any other candidate for Circuit Judge except Mr. Birkhead, and when Judge Owen's friends applied to it for space during the campaign for the nomination for Circuit

Judge, he was very promptly turned down, and he and his friends were compelled to pay for space at ten cents per line. We desire to congratulate Judge Morrison on his ability to secure over one column of free advertising, when Judge Owen had to pay at the rate of ten cents per line for advertising his campaign. We gather these facts from the letters of Mr. G. B. Likens published in the Herald of September, 1902. By-the-way, those letters of Mr. Likens' and the editorials published in the Herald about that time are very interesting reading and Judge Owen's friends in the Democratic party could gain some information from them. In one of them Likens says: "Does Mr. Birkhead think, that the Democrats of Ohio county are so lacking in spirit and so dull and stupid as to turn with cringing and fawning, and kiss the hand that smote him?" We think not, and enough of the Democrats of Ohio county will vote for Judge Morrison as to forever relegate Mr. Birkhead to the rear.

Bradley on the Stump.
Louisville, Oct. 3.—The fact that Gov. Bradley has not spoken for Belknap has aroused some comment. Chairman John C. Wood, of the Republican speakers' bureau, yesterday received the following letter from former Gov. Bradley:

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 2, 1903.—Hon. John C. Wood, chairman speakers' bureau.—Sir: Had my health justified I would have spoken for the Republican party before this and shall certainly speak as soon as able.

The best interest of the state requires the election of the Republican ticket, and I trust that no man will be found who is not willing to do his duty.

I hope that no effort will be spared to register the vote in the cities and towns of the commonwealth, as this is the foundation of success and in the absence of a full and proper registration we cannot hope to win.

Your friend,
W. O. BRADLEY.

Judge W. S. Morrison.
The Hawesville Plaiddealer, a Democratic paper published at Hawesville in this Judicial District, has the following to say of Judge W. Scott Morrison for Circuit Judge.

Judge Scott Morrison was born under a lucky star and is now nearing the rainbow's end where golden success awaits him.

The Plaiddealer gives its most earnest support to Judge Scott Morrison because we know, and all men know, that when elected he will not play with, or be a puppet clown in, the great office where men's lives and liberty and property are involved. The very knowledge that all cases coming before him will be tried fairly according to law and evidence, guarantees him at once the support of all conservative men who do not want the judiciary contaminated by politics. A vote for Judge Morrison will live to become a proud boast.

Wants a Part of the Fee.
Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 6.—Adjutant General Murray has decided to appeal to the Legislature to reimburse him for work performed by him in the collection of the Kentucky war claim from the National Government, and for which Capt. C. C. Calhoun was paid a fee of $77,000 by the provisions of a contract made and entered into with Gov. Beckham.

Gen. Murray arrived here from West Point yesterday to complete arrangements for the reception of Gov. Beckham at Camp Young to-morrow.

Before his departure from the city Gen. Murray reiterated his statement in reply to the charge of Major Owens that he did not receive or request one cent of the fee allowed Capt. Calhoun for the collection of this war claim.

"I might have said, and probably did say to Col. Breckenridge, that I believed that I was entitled to some compensation for the collection of the claim, and I say so now, for I did considerable work in this matter."

"I expect to ask the Legislature at the very next session to reimburse me for the work I performed in assisting to collect this claim. I did more work toward bringing about a settlement of the Spanish-American war claim than any other man and have performed more work since my appointment as Adjutant General, than any of my predecessors."

Birkhead "Skeered."
The Hawesville Plaiddealer, a Democratic paper of Hawesville says: Mr. Birkhead, of Owensboro, spoke to a small crowd Saturday night at the local play house. The gentleman is making a house-to-house canvass for the office of Circuit Judge. This seems to be a new departure for a candidate for such a dignified position, and the general belief is that he is badly frightened.

"It Goes Right to the Spot"
When pain or irritation exists on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment will give prompt relief. "It goes right to the spot," said an old man who was rubbing it in, to cure his rheumatism. C. R. Smith, Propr. Smith House Tenaha writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for several years, and have found it to be a fine remedy for all aches and pains, and I recommend it for pains in the throat and chest. 25c. 50c. and $1.00 at J. H. Williams."

LIST IS IGNORED.

Kenton Elected Board World Not Name Pugh's Officers.

Covington, Ky., Oct. 5.—Local Democrats threaten to mandamus the Kenton County Election Commission to force it to name all election officers from the list submitted by the Democratic Executive Committee. Sheriff McNerny, an anti-Pugh Democrat voted with Republican Commissioner Kennedy against Democratic Commissioner Lemler, and in twenty-two instances in the selection of election officers for this city and Ludlow the Democratic Committee's list was ignored.

Those who support the action of the majority part of the commission contend that under the election law the County Commissioners are given absolutely power to judge of the fitness of men suggested for places as election officials, and that where they deem all the persons proposed to be improper, they may appoint others not on the list. The opposition, however, asserts that the election statute says the officers shall be selected from lists submitted by the party committees, and that where the commission finds objection to all the names offered, it is the spirit, of not the letter, of the law, that a supplemental list be requested of the party organization. The matter likely will be settled by the court's interpretation of the election law.

THE LAW IN THE CASE.
Unless the officers are selected from the lists submitted by each party committee, then the selection rests absolutely with a partisan majority. This would make it possible to remove every element of chance from every election.

Sheriff McNerny says he is here after a Republican, but it so he must abandon his old Democratic practices and unite with the Republicans in an effort to secure fair elections everywhere.

In other counties the Democratic sheriff, acting with the Democratic County Commissioners, has ignored the lists submitted by the Republican officers, and themselves made the selection.

This is a return to Goebelinism. It resorts to law under which the elections of 1899 and 1900 were held and all the friends of fair elections should oppose this mutilation of the law.—Editor Republican.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cherry & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses to drop to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. Cherry & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Nasal Catarrh quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Balm, which is agreeable aromatic. It is received through the nostrils, cleanses and heals the whole surface over which it diffuses itself. A remedy for Nasal Catarrh which is drying or exciting to the diseased membrane should not be used. Cream Balm is recognized as a specific. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail. A cold in the head immediately disappears when Cream Balm is used. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Republican Speaking.

Hon. E. T. Franks, of Owensboro, will address the voters of Ohio county at Fordsville Saturday, October 10th, and at the Court House here the following Monday, October 12. Speaking begins 1 o'clock p. m.
M. S. Ragland Ch'm'n.
E. M. Woodward, Sec'y.

OLATON, KY.
Oct. 6.—The farmers are very busy now seeing after their fall work.

Several attended the Hartford Fair last week and report a nice time. Health is very good in our vicinity. Wm. Lyons has been on the sick list.

The Republicans in our precinct are very much interested in this election and I am proud of our little precinct for it is most certainly composed of good loyal men, both Democrats and Republicans. Men that have got back-bone enough to come out like men and vote their sentiments. Our friend that writes to the Herald, it seems, would like for somebody to believe it is dead easy to pull Republicans over in Olaton precinct to vote with the Democrats. Oh, my, good old Democrat, our boys have to much back-bone for that and too well posted. Our boys in and about Olaton are all good, law-abiding men and they are not likely to get into any serious trouble. If they should they might have a faint idea of voting for Beckham. Knowing his pardoning record so well I have heard good

LIVERMORE, KY.

Oct. 7.—Rev. Geo. H. Givan is here for several days visit to friends, he has nearly recovered from his long spell of illness. The Livermore people are loathe to part with him as he will be transferred to some other point.

Reed Atherson, of this place, and Miss Erma Noflinger, of Sacramento, were united in matrimony at Calhoun last Sunday. They will make their home at this place.

Jno. and Chas. Cowgill have bought the stock of goods and house owned by R. O. Gore and will conduct the business in the same line on a larger scale.

The memorial window presented to the M. E. Church, South, by the local lodge of Masons in honor of Dr. G. A. Hillman, has been installed and adds much to the beauty of the interior of the church.

The McLean County Medical Society met here Saturday with small attendance, but considerable interest was manifested among those present. C. B. Ednauds has returned home after spending three weeks in Hopkins county in the interest of the Equitable Insurance Company.

The suit recently filed in the McLean Circuit Court against the trustees of the Livermore Graded School to prevent the collection of taxes recently voted and levied for the maintenance of the school, was called last week and resulted in a victory for the trustees.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Shutt and Miss Myra Johnson, of Calhoun, were in town Sunday.

Mr. Gordon Pierce, who lost his house by fire last week, will rebuild in the near future.

Rev. T. L. Reid, of Havesville, has been assigned to the Livermore circuit of the M. E. Church, South, for the ensuing year.

Mr. Schastin, of Henderson, is organizing a Commandery of the Golden Cross Society at this place.

Quite a number from here attended the Hartford Fair last week and all reported a good fair and a good time. W. S. Trunnell, of this place, has leased a farm near Utica where he will soon move and engage in farming.

apolis, Ind., and the main office is there. It is spreading all over the country every last. We organized a union in our district Saturday, June 6th, at West Point church, Matanzas, Ohio county, Ky. The object in view of the society is to cooperate, to organize, in order to be able to get a fair price for our farm products, and to hold it for a certain length of time, to be directed by the main office.

I think this is a very good time for most of the people. The farmer has been held down long enough. People of almost every other kind of business organize and set their prices and what we have to buy from them. I do not see why we could not do the same, for we all know that the farmer feed the world, and why can't we organize and get paid for all our hand work, because farm crops are used by everybody. This organization would be of benefit to almost everybody from the President down to the county pauper. If any of the readers want further information, address the American Society of Equity Indianapolis, Ind., or S. W. Tichenor, Point Pleasant, Ky., organizer of Ohio county. ## RIDDLED BECKHAMISM.

Some Telling Shafts Hurling by Judge Beckner.

EXCERPTS FROM A RECENT SPEECH.

The Governor's Confession of Incompetency, His False Charges, His Sophistry, Political Pardons and the Intolerance of His Machine, All Are Aply Elucidated.

In a notable address at Mansfield, Judge Beckner delivered some telling blows at Beckhamism. Excerpts from his speech follow:

"I hope it is not too majestic for me to say that I have never known a more distressing confusion of incompetency or foolishness in the administration of justice than was made by Governor Beckham at his speech at Winchester, when he said that it has been over three and a half years since William Gobel was murdered, and only one man of all those who conspired to assassinate him has received his punishment."

"The executive, legislative and judicial branches of the government have been absolutely in the hands of the Democratic party."

GOVERNOR BECKHAM'S CHARGES
"It is painful to have William Gobel's wounds torn open at every election, and his bones dragged from the grave to secure votes, the Democrats could not otherwise get. I regretted to read the bitter words of Governor Beckham, when in his speech at my town, he referred to the Democratic ticket now before the people for their suffrages. It was as patriotic, mainly, law-respecting body of men as ever met in Kentucky, and neither applied assassinating nor believed in murder as a political necessity. Whenever Governor Beckham makes deliberate descents from his position as a gentleman, and states for political effect what he does not believe to be true. The people are tired of these appeals to their passions and prejudices, and yearn to be given reasons for their action at the polls. You may fool some of the people all the time, all of the people sometimes, but you can not fool all the people all the time."

HIS CONSPICIOUS ACTS.
"The conspicuous acts of Governor Beckham's administration have been the remarkable pardons he has granted. He knows, as well as the rest of us, that it is not the number of pardons that is complained of, although this is a distressing enough. It is the fact that so many of them have been based on personal or political pulls, and not on merit, and that some of them have been for offenses so atrocious as to shock the people of this and other states when the record, in spite of every effort to suppress it, has been published to the world."

BECKHAM STAYED AT HOME.
"Contrast his course with that of his opponent, Colonel Lindsay, who had a family and vast business interests that would suffer by his absence. Without hesitation, he put all aside and gave up a year of his life to the work of driving the Spauldars from America and establishing the sovereignty of the United States in Porto Rico."

POLITICAL PARDONS
"There is one instance in Governor Beckham's speech, at Winchester, which discloses the standpoint from which he has viewed all the cases of assassination that have disgraced Kentucky during the past few years. In it, referring to Jett and White, he said:

"Believe, as did the jury, that they were guilty of the assassination of Harcum, and I can say to the people that I will never pardon them. But crime, even though it is a Republican leader in his section."

"He has considered the murders at Frankfort and at Jackson from political points of view, and intimates of the part of his speech. I have just quoted that it is something not to be expected of him to stand by and see two Democrats punished for having assassinated merely a Republican leader."

NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN WOODSON'S VIEWS.

Before all the facts had been made public, or other charges made, Mr. Urey Woodson, member for Kentucky of the national Democratic committee, in referring to Governor Beckham, had written in his newspaper:

"How can he hope, if outmaneuvered by the slick work of his machine, to go before the voters and be elected?"

"His nomination would place the Democratic party in a calamitous condition. He should retire at once. His friends, if they have any consideration for the party, should force him to retire."

"What a record is this? The people of Kentucky will not stand for it. There must be a clean-cut at."

Do Good—It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that, "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lead a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more substantial help. There are persons in this community who faithfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time." Sold by all druggists.

Frankfort, or the Democratic party is lost."

WATKINSON'S APPEAL.

It is only a few months ago since Mr. Watkinson, in an earnest editorial, said that "if there were any Democrats left in Kentucky who love the mother state with the whole-hearted devotion of undegenerate sons, they would do well to come to the front and give the benefit of their better judgment and ripened experience to the tin soldiers of fortune and of chance who are rattling around in uniform too large for them." The undegenerate sons heard the appeal, but knew they were not wanted, and did not dare to openly demand a change from the boxes who are now in control of the party. The few, like J. D. Black, R. J. Breckinridge, and John K. Hendrick, who did respond, got themselves unmercifully killed for their pains, and are on the list of those who have no hope of a future in the Democratic politics of the state.

GENERAL CASTLEMAN'S TRIBUTE.

As a contrast to the ease policy of the Democratic party, with its singular course with reference to its selection of a candidate for governor, the Republican party boldly and openly states its views with reference to all public questions, and nominated at the head of its ticket a gentleman of whom Colonel John B. Castleman, a gallant soldier of two years of a life-long Democrat, in his frank and manly way, said:

"I think the Republican party was wise in the selection of Colonel Morris B. Belknap as its candidate for governor."

"I am not a politician," continued General Castleman, "and for that reason do not care to say for whom I will vote in November. I do not object to stating publicly, however, that I think Colonel Belknap an admirable man—one who would be a credit to the state if elected governor. He is a gentleman of first-class qualities. He is a scholar and a man of unusual executive ability."

"For many years he served under me as an officer in the United States Army, and later as a lieutenant colonel in the Spanish-American war. I have learned to know that he is an able manager of affairs and a person of executive ability which I have hardly ever seen surpassed. He is a man of excellent judgment."

"I think him in every way fitted to be the governor of Kentucky, just as I believe every other good citizen should think when so high-class a gentleman as Colonel Belknap is put in nomination."

MAKE THE GOVERNOR FEEL HIS OATH.

When Governor Beckham pardoned Joe Raleigh, sent to the penitentiary for killing a 14-year-old girl because she would not allow him to rob her of her honor, he characterized it as "more than manslaughter." Goodloe Combs assassinated a man for hire, and was excused because it was his "first offense."

Judge Hargis wrote him that Branch Hargis, who for a person for Lock Cold, convicted of murder, "was a strong man and always on our side of everything."

Colonel Felix, in urging the pardon of Josephus Felt, sent to the penitentiary for rape, wrote:

"Certainly the friendship and consideration and support I have shown you would seem to merit some gratitude."

He had previously, as an inducement to grant this same pardon, made this suggestion to His Excellency:

"Some time when you can meet me in Cincinnati, and will arrange to make you feel your oats for a few days."

RECORD OF REPUBLICAN LEGISLATURE.

Since Governor Beckham came into office, there have been two regular terms and one special term of a Democratic legislature. If anything of value to the state at either, had been done, or if he had recommended anything of special merit, we may assume that his Excellency, notwithstanding his extreme modesty, would have referred to it in his Winchester speech. The published acts show the reason for his silence. During Governor Bradley's term, there was only one Republican legislature, and this had to be protected from Democratic intimidation by the State guard. And yet look what it did! It passed acts—

1. To pay witnesses for the state in all criminal or penal cases removed to the United States courts. Previously every poor fellow summoned to stand before these courts had been forced to pay his own way.

2. To provide for organizing and maintaining graded schools.

3. To set aside fraudulent conveyances in a speedy way than before.

4. To require all railroad companies to run at least one train each day in the year.

5. To enable the asylums, etc., to draw their allowance in advance so as to buy for cash, and thus avoid the vicious shaves, to which they were before that time subjected.

6. To regulate the examination of teachers so as to elevate their standard of qualification.

7. To erect monuments to both Union and Confederate dead at Chattanooga and Chickamauga National Parks.

8. To provide by law for free turnpikes so as to do away with the outrages committed previously by an archaic mole.

9. To establish a home of reform and re-education for the new constitution adopted years before.

10. To provide for compulsory attendance at school during at least eight continuous weeks in each year.

THE DEMOCRATIC RECORD.

If the Democratic party has not done much for the laboring man, it has certainly provided for those who do not want to labor. Here are a few commissions it has created and all of which cost money to the taxpayers:

1. The board for equalization of assessments, whose members get $5 per day each, and ten cents per mile for traveling expenses, with three paid secretaries.

2. The board of health, with an appropriation of $2,500 per year, and $1,200 to the secretary.

3. The board of pharmacy, with a salaried secretary and $5 per day each member.

4. Board of election commissioners, with a secretary, all of whom get pay.

The state inspector and examiner, who is paid $2,000 per year and expenses.

The Advisory Board of Agriculture.

The board of prison commissioners, each of whom is paid a salary for work better done before by the sinking fund commissioners at much less cost.

EDUCATION RETARDED.

"No progress has been made in education since 1884, when an executive committee, of which I was chairman and Morris Belknap secretary, secured the passage of the act of May 12, 1884, which raised the standard of teachers' qualifications, made a considerable addition to the funds available each year for educational purposes, and provided for condemning school houses and replacing them with more suitable buildings. In the constitutional convention, I had the honor to suggest that the $800,000 paid to Kentucky by the United States in refunding the direct taxes collected during the Civil war should be added to the school fund. I was also the author of the provision allowing municipalities to exempt manufacturing establishments from taxation for a period of five years, as an inducement for their location, and to make subscriptions in aid of terminals, graded roads, and bridges, so much needed in this commonwealth. The Republican legislature of 1896 passed the act requiring the erection of a house of reform, and it was approved by Governor Bradley. The same general assembly provided for compulsory education during eight continuous weeks in each year, but it has been a dead letter under Democratic administration. A great deal of noise has been made by Governor Beckham's faction of his party about amending the constitution to require compulsory education for our children, but it was only talk to catch votes, and nothing practical has been done."

THE "GREAT COMMON PEOPLE."

Governor Beckham adds his supporters talk a great deal about the "great common people." In his Winchester speech he takes much credit to himself for his condemnation when he says:

"The door of my office has been opened as cordially to the humblest citizen in the commonwealth as to the proudest. The laboring man, whether from the field, the factory, or the mine, has always been as welcome in my presence as the head of any corporation."

It would indeed be audacious if this servant of the people should shut the doors of a public building against the sovereigns to whom it belongs. This language accounts for his conduct toward the correspondents whom he has personally, or through his henchmen, driven from the public offices and refused the clear legal right of being admitted to inspect the records of the state. Few sovereigns would dare to do so in this case, as has this action of the aristocratic Wickliffe family, who speaks as if he should be considered quite worthy man for permitting a laboring man "with a hammer" to come into his exalted presence.

FEW HAVE RETURNED.

Then there are the Democrats who left the party which they once belonged to, and have either become Republicans, or are independents. These are either such as would not accept the Chicago platform in 1896, or refused to follow the Mule hall convention in 1898, which robbed Watt Harbin and Captain Stone of their chances for the nomination and declared for policies that were contrary to the old Democratic doctrine of home rule, by removing control of the elections from the counties to a commission at Frankfort, and not only threatened ruin to both capital and labor in the state, but were calculated to make those having money to invest, sure to pass by Kentucky. These departures from the doctrine and teachings of Jefferson and Jackson drove many a man and convictions away from the organization. Among those who refused to support all its nominees were Carlisle, Lindsay, Buckner, W. C. P. Breckinridge, W. G. Owens, W. W. Dickerson, W. H. Duke, R. W. Dickerson, John Young Brown, Matt Adams, Watterson, Durham, John P. Lockett, P. P. Johnson, C. M. Clay, Jr., Thomas Turner, C. J. Brontson, J. K. Hendricks, C. M. Hanna, McKelvie, Mow, R. L. Stone, Colonel Cal Morgan, John E. Dyer, R. C. B. Dyer, W. O. Dearing, J. D. Hunt, E. E. Hill, Leslie T. Applegate, and a host of others who had been valiant fighters for their principles, but preferred political suicide to voting for what they did not believe. Some of these returned to the fold, but their number is few indeed. None have left the Republicans to go to the Democrats, which is a significant fact. Carlisle, Lindsay and Watt Harbin were driven even from the state by the proscription course of those who hated them for their very courage and honesty.

INTOLERANCE OF THE MACHINE.

None who ever voted have been forgiven, and will not be, however faithfully and slavishly their services may be in the future. John K. Hendricks was an ardent friend of Senator Gobel, and thought his conduct in supporting the leader of the party would be considered fruit meet for repentance, and wash all his sins away. He found out to the contrary last spring, and said himself, when he withdrew as a candidate for the governorship, that he "had been forced out of the race by the machine."

Mr. Watterson had expended so much money in maintaining Democratic principles, and had wandered from the fold for so short a period, that he thought when he had bowed down before the Kansas City shrine and accepted the author of the law he had so bitterly denounced, as the chief corner stone of his reprobated faith, he would be gladly accepted as the head of the ticket in the state campaign for the present year. It gave the boys a beautiful chance to get even with him, and after bucking the tiger for a while, he too, discovered that the machine preferred even a man not eligible under the constitution, to one who had exercised his independent judgment as a citizen and a patriot in 1884. On a recent social occasion a personal friend playfully suggested the possibility that W. C. P. Breckinridge, whose name had once been under the log cabin, might again be returned to congress by the Democrats. This turned loose all the billingsgate of the Lexington organ of the state administration, and he has been storming at and abusing as if his very company were distasteful.

PLEDGES ARE NOTHING

Broken Promises of Beckham Strewed by Roadside.

WRITERS, WRIGGLES AND SQUIGGLS

When Confronted With His Public Utterances Which Were Freely Made During the Campaign in 1900—His Speeches of Then and Now Compared Show Hopeless Inconsistency.

(Louisville Herald.)

There are pathological signs that Beckham, grown irresponsible with the power that he is in, is competent to wield, does not himself understand what he says, or, if he does, will not hesitate to deny his own utterances for expediency. The words that men ordinarily use with each other and which are accepted among men generally as meaning something definite and binding to mental and moral integrity seem to have strange shapes and ineffectualities to him. Here, for instance, are two public speeches made by Mr. Beckham, three years apart, upon the same subject, and that subject the one which, of all subjects, was engrossing his whole attention then, as it is now—Pardons: (From the Courier-Journal's Report of Governor Beckham's speech at Mayfield, Sept. 17, 1900.)

Mr. Yerkes asks me what I will do in reference to the men charged with Gobel's murder. I want to say here and now that I am not the nominee of a party which has demonstrated its belief in the expediency of crime, as Mr. Yerkes is; but I shall not set at liberty any man with whatever crime he may be charged, if the evidence against him is strong enough to justify his conviction.

While in the main Governor Beckham's speech today was on the lines of that delivered at the opening of the campaign, he departed to some extent and took occasion to comment on Colonel Belknap's newspaper "reply" to the governor's question as to whether Mr. Belknap, if elected, would pardon Caleb Powers, Howard or Yontley. In that interview Colonel Belknap said that Governor Beckham in his former race for governor had promised not to pardon any man convicted by a jury of twelve men.

The governor said this statement compared as closely to the truth as one of Colonel Belknap's bills of lading compared with one of his invoices. He said he had made no such absurd promise; he stated that he would never pardon a man unless he believed him innocent, and he had kept his promise.

The report of the Mayfield speech was signed by Mr. John D. Wakefield, then, as now, staff correspondent of the Courier-Journal, and now also second in command of the Hon. Robert Sherley, Democratic congressman from Harrodsburg. The report is signed by Mr. Graham Vreeland, night editor of the Courier-Journal, whose Democracy will not be questioned. Mr. Wakefield says there were 7,000 persons who heard the speech at Mayfield. Mr. Vreeland says about 6,000 persons heard the Harrodsburg speech. So, that there were 12,000 witnesses to what the governor said at both places.

The question is, what did these thousands of witnesses hear? Did those at Mayfield understand him to mean that he pledged himself to pardon no man convicted of any crime whatever by a fair jury of twelve men? Did those at Harrodsburg hear in the limits of its plain meaning when he applied it only to the gravest of all crimes—murder?

Now, when the exigencies of his desperate position call for the denial of that solemn promise, wondrously and scores of time violated, Mr. Beckham says he promised not to pardon any man unless he thought him "innocent."

If this is the way he is to write and speak and write out of plain and solemn promises, is he to be trusted at all? Can all the little man of Lilliput bind this young man with threads enough to hold him to the truth?

When Governor Beckham's mental reservations about Jett and White? In his Winchester speech he made this pledge:

"I feel that I am fully acquainted with the facts, and I believe, as did the jury, that they were guilty of the assassination of Harcum, and I can say to the people that I will never pardon them. But crime, even though it is a Republican leader in his section."

Is that pledge any plainer than the Mayfield pledge? Now that he tries to squirm and wriggle out of his Mayfield promise, let him state plainly what this Winchester pledge means.

A CORRECTION IN HOLOGOLOGY.

To the Editor of the Herald: I note in the Herald of August 26 the following headline: Campaign Secretary Fulton Gets His Hand in the Trough.

Now, my long experience as an agriculturist warrants me in calling your attention to this fact, that it is the nature of a hog to put his head, not his "hands," in the trough; although there have been well authenticated instances of a very earnest hog getting all four of his "hands" in the trough. Please do not again shock the hology of your farmer friends.

CINCINNATI, Greenville, Sept. 1.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown, of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "I endured terrific suffering from Asthma and my New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure. Similar cases of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are cured. It's the perfect remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro."

Mand Howe, the gifted daughter of Jolla Ward Howe continues Lippincott's for C. to her fascinating experience of life in Rome. She tells of "A presentation to Pope Leo the Thirteenth" in that simple but vivid way which characterizes all her writing.

DEMOCRATIC SIMPLICITY.

(Louisville Herald.)

Scene—Democratic Machine Headquarters at Beelbach's Hotel, Gorgeous Leather Chairs, Roseum Cupidors, Luxurious Beds, Sofas, Curtains, Carpets so thick that you have to climb up when you take a step. All surrounded with the unmistakable atmosphere of Jeffersonian Democracy simplicity.

9:45 a. m.—General Italy awakes. Rises, takes a bath (the sounded as ah in this bath, remember), and sprinkles talcum powder over his dimpled body, weary with the labors of yesterday.

9:47 a. m.—Chairman Hager does likewise. Pushes button one time.

9:50 a. m.—The boy returns with the tray.

10 a. m.—Judge Hines turns over a leaf. Severely reprimanded by managers.

10:10 a. m.—Telegram received that Ray Leigh has laid two eggs in one day as Editor Beckham's table.

10:31 a. m.—Great applause. Chairman Hager pushes button two times in quick succession.

11:40 a. m.—General Italy examines mail. A few foolish letters of Blackbriar McCreary and other inexperienced politicians thrown into waste basket. "Hot!" says the general, and "Bah!"

12:05 p. m.—Still breakfasting.

12:40 p. m.—General Italy picks his teeth. Toothpick will be raffled off for campaign funds. Great souvenir. Chances, 50 cents.

1 p. m.—General Italy now dictating letter to Campaigner Fulton.

4:30 p. m.—John Vreeland and Billy Demosin call. John announces that Robert Hubert has learned the difference between a walking cultivator and a flying Jenny. Great surprise manifested together with indecipherable joy.

4:30 p. m.—Colonel Jack China, the Official Bad Man, arrives. Much hand-shaking. Chairman Hager pushes button ten times.

4:30 p. m.—Major Granger arrives in the corridor. General Italy too busy to see him. Will call later.

4:40 p. m.—Dimension warns warm over indifferent remark of some one that Judge John M. Lansing is the wisest man. Commissioner McChord wins very easily. Looks like a winner.

5:15 p. m.—Billboy notifies committee that the lobby is now ready to hold a family reunion in the grill room.

6:10 p. m.—McCreary arrives from Lexington, via Philadelphia, via Cape Horn and Smithland Air Ship Line. Speech habit attacks him at the door.

6:30 p. m.—McCreary still speaking. Chairman Hager grows weary and orders button pushed.

6:45 p. m.—Uncle George Green comes in. Reports some trouble in Harrodsburg. Hager and pardon properly distributed will make everything lovely.

8:30 p. m.—Discussion of the subject, "What is the Most Effective Method of Protecting Pardon and Other Secrets?" Referred to Hubert Vreeland and Colonel Charley Hoes.

9:05 p. m.—The hour for setting spring chicken, porthouse steak, pompano and lamb fires arrives. No bulletins to be issued for three hours.

12 a. m.—The carriages are in the door. Itinerary now bulletined.

3:30 a. m.—Party returns after being thoroughly convinced that precinct organization is all right and the country safe.

4:45 a. m.—Preparations for retiring. Silk pajamas called out. Good night ceremony of pushing the button one time.

4:05 a. m.—General Italy asleep. He is thinking.

BECKNAP TO TAXPAYERS.

"We must take out our pencils and figure up the amount of taxes we have to pay, and then in the next column add up what we get for them. If we add that for our hard-earned dollars we are simply feeding a lot of grafters when our state is crying for better buildings, better schools and better institutions, then the buying proposition is going against us, and the day of reckoning is at hand."—Barbourville Speech.

JAMES D. BLACK A REPUBLICAN

The Hon. James D. Black of Knox county, the same who was squeezed out of the race for the Democratic nomination for governor by the machine because he was a mountain man, was a delegate to the Louisville convention and took part in the nomination of his brother John A. Black, for treasurer. Mr. Black has aligned himself with our party and will give the ticket his cheerful and earnest support.—Grayson Tribune.

BUCK WILHOIT'S NOMINATION.

The nomination of our Buck Wilhoit for lieutenant governor is pleasing to everybody in this section, regardless of party. He is the most popular man in our Kentucky, and will add to the strength of the ticket. The Carter delegation takes into itself some credit in getting Buck properly hitched onto the nomination.—Grayson Tribune.

Dieting Invites Diseases.

To cure Dyspepsia or Indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one craves to eat, and is a never failing cure for indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bros.
